Report on digital week celebration on 04-09-2023

The celebration of Digital India Week-2023 is in full swing as Government Degree College Uttersoo has organized a series of successful events. The events include Painting competition, Essay competition and a Quiz competition. These events have brought together participants from diverse backgrounds, all eager to enhance their digital knowledge and skills. These events were organized by the Department of Computer Science in collaboration with Debates and Seminar committee of the college.

The celebration began with a warm welcome by the worthy Principal of the college Prof. Syed Javiad Hussain, who emphasized the importance of cyber security and digital literacy in today's digitally connected world.

The first event was a painting competition in which 12 students participated and showed their talent. Students had beautifully depicted their ideas on drawing paper and done justice to the theme of the competition. It was very difficult to choose the best three positions from the participants. But after thorough discussions by selected panel (Prof. Fidah Hussain, Dr. Sajad Ahmad, Prof. Bilal Ahmad), the following were declared as the top entries of the competition.

1. Asif Nisar Malik (student of 6th.sem.batch-2020)
2. Sartaj Gani (student 5th.sem, Batch-2021)
3. Muneeb-ul- Amin Bhat & Fasil Rashid(students 5th.sem-Batch-2021)

On the same day an essay competition on the theme 'E-governance and its applications' was also organized. The event was conducted in the library of the college in presence of Worthy Principal of the college. Dr. Gulzar Ahmad, Prof Fidah Hussain, Mr. Ashiq Hussain and Mr. Asif Mohammad (Librarian) were involved in planning and conducting of the event. The essay copies written by the students were examined and evaluated by Dr. Gulzar Ahmad Bhat (Head, Department of English). Based on the evaluation of answer scripts Sartaj Gani (Semester 5th), Taqleela Manzoor (Semester 6th) and Muneeb-ul-Amin Bhat (Semester 5th) declared First, Second and third positions respectively.

Finally a quiz competition was held on the basics of computer application. 15 students in three teams (A, B, C) from different semesters participated in the event. There were a total number of 4 rounds and 24 questions were asked to the groups.

Dr. Sajad Ahmad Padday and Dr. Imtiyaz Ahmad Wani were nominated as jury of the event. Group A led by Raja Monis got first position while Group B Led by Sartaj Gani and Group C led by Tabish Bashir begged second and third positions respectively. The programme was moderated by Mr. Ashiq Hussain.

GDC Uttersoo and District Police, Anantnag organized Seminar on Drug De-addiction

Under the banner of Nasha Mukta Abhiyan and G-20 and patronage of Worthy Principal, Professor Syed Javaid Hussain, Debates and Seminar Committee, NSS Unit in collaboration with District Police, Anantnag organized one day Seminar on Drug De-addiction today on 18th November, 2023. The programme was moderated by Dr. Showkat Hussain Ganie, Co-Convener Debates and Seminar Committee. The Worthy Principal, Professor Syed Javaid Hussain delivered the welcome address in which he welcomed all the participants particularly to Mr. Razeeb Ahmad (Sub Divisional Police Officer, Achabal), Mr. Mohd Ashraf (Station House Officer, Uttersoo), Learned speaker from the Drug De-addiction Centre, Ms. Mudasir Aziz and Dr. Muneera Gull from Sub District Hospital Shangus. The worthy Principal also stressed that Government has a primary responsibility to counteract the drug trafficking and drug abuse although communities can also make a major contribution. Educational institutions, Religious organizations and elder members of a family can play vital role to eradicate the drug menace from its roots, the worthy Principal added.

Professor Nazir Ahmad Wani, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Chemistry and Physics delivered keynote address in which he elaborated the science of addiction. He highlighted that use of substances including marijuana, opioids, cocaine etc. trigger the brain to release excess dopamine. Dopamine signal alter neural connectivity that could lead to repeat the activity time and again without thinking much about it and thus the result is habit and addiction, he added.

The first learned speaker on the occasion was Mr. Razeeb Ahmad, Sub Divisional Police Officer, Achabal. The illustrious speaker talked about the role played by the police department for uprooting the menace of Drug Abuse. While hinting to certain Govt. Acts, he said that police always remains on tenterhooks to nab the main culprits, that is, the drug peddlers. However, he emphasized that nothing substantial and durable can be achieved without the coordination of the general public. He also advised the educational institutions must frame the committee that shall keep an eagle eye on the suspected students. His speech was followed by student talks. The list of students who deliberated upon the drug abuse includes Mr. Suhalb Ahmad, Ms. Rahiqa Lateef, Ms. Iqra Majeed, Ms. Sabiya Yousuf and Mr. Murtaza Ahmad Chowan. Mr. Suhalb Ahmad played momentous video with a message that drug addictions could lead to deterioration of health and social life. Other students highlighted that drug addiction ruins the path of progress of individuals in every respect and therefore, the proactive measures in the form of awareness programmes must be taken in order to stop the youth from this menace.

The last speaker on the occasion was Ms. Mudasir Aziz, I/C Drug De-addiction and Rehabilitation Centre, Anantnag. The kind lady first played a video that showed how a person gets trapped by drug peddlers. This was followed by her elaborative talk in which she intensely explained causes of drug addiction and different approaches to curb the drug menace. She also advised the gathering to contact the Drug De-addiction Centre for every possible help.

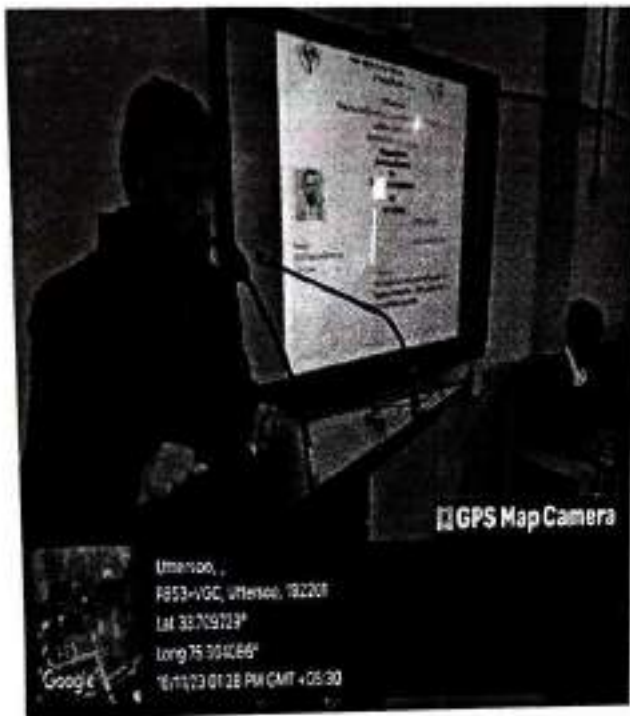

Every presentation was followed by a question and answer session in which the queries posed to the speakers were answered to the satisfaction of one and all. Prof. Tariq Bashir, Convener Debates and welcomed the gathering particularly the learned speaker of the day, Dr. Amreen Gull, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Govt. Degree College for Women, Anantnag. The worthy Principal also delivered inaugural address in which he highlighted the importance of the constitution of India and also stressed that the day is being celebrated every year to promote the ideas and thoughts of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. The resource person on the occasion, Dr. Amreen while delving deep into the history of the Indian Constitution, elaborated its philosophy and salient features by giving a birds'-eye-view of its various sections and clauses. The main focus of her talk was the philosophy of Dr. Ambedkar, that: the interests are secured by society's social and moral consciousness rather than the legislation and democracy of Govt. is literally the democratic society. The worthy speaker explicated that constitution displays the country as sovereign, secular and particularly democratic. In addition, the constitution of India promotes justice, equality, liberty and fraternity, the speaker added. There was 15 minute question answer session in which the kind resource person replied all the queries raised by the audience.

The talk was followed by the Joint reading of the Preamble of the Constitution of India by the whole faculty and students of the College led by the worthy Principal, Professor Syed Javaid Hussain.

The programme concluded with Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Gulzar Ahmad, Department of English, GDC Uttersoo during the course of which sincere gratitude was accorded to the Worthy Principal, Learned Speaker Dr. Amreen Gull, Programme organizers, faculty members and students for their active participation and making the event a grand success.

GDC Uttersoo organized Yuva Vaani as a follow up of Kisan Sampark Abhiyan

GDC Uttersoo in collaboration with Agriculture Production Department, Shangus organized one day orientation programme Yuva Vani today on 14th December, 2023. The aim of the programme was to make the youth self-reliant by making them aware about the different schemes of Agriculture. The Programme was moderated by Professor Basharat Hussain Bhat, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Economics. The worthy Principal, Professor Syed Javaid Hussain delivered the welcome address in which he cordially welcomed the senior most faculty, Professor Nazir Ahmad Wani, Mr. Rayees Ahmad (Agriculture Extension Officer Shangus, Dr. Iqra (Veterinary Assistant Surgeon, Shangus), other esteemed guests from Agriculture Department, Faculty members and students.

Mr. Rayees Ahmad, Agriculture extension Officer acquainted the audience particularly the students about immense potential of agri-entrepreneurship and the opportunities provided by Govt. of India through flagship Holistic Agriculture Development Plan (HADP). Speaking of the event, Mr. Rayees Ahmad advised the students to avail the benefits of various government schemes in the agriculture sector including irrigation schemes, Krishi Udan scheme, PM Fasal Bima Yojana and others. The worthy speaker also assured the worthy Principal that Agriculture Department shall provide full training on the cultivation of Mushrooms to students of Govt. Degree College Uttersoo and shall make them aware how to identify and sustainably manage pest and diseases and weed mushrooms.

The second speaker present on the occasion was Dr. Iqra, Veterinary Assistant Surgeon, Shangus. The kind lady elaborated that production of wool has gone down because of scattered production, scantiness of processing facilities and diminishing of cottage industries. The illustrious speaker added that there are a number of HADP projects aimed to uplift the sheep farming mainly in the Kashmir division and thereby enhancing the production and processing of wool.

The speech was followed by thorough 30 minute question-answer session in which learned speakers answered all the queries raised by worthy Principal and the audience. The programme culminated with vote of thanks presented by Dr. Showkat Hussain Ganie, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Botany in which he thanked worthy Principal, Professor Syed Javaid Hussain, dignitaries from Agriculture Production Department, Faculty members and students for their active participation and making the event a great success.

Under the patronage of the worthy Principal, Professor Javaid Hussain, Debates and Seminars Committee, in collaboration with District Social Welfare, Anantnag organized a programme on 9th March, 2024 to celebrate this year's International Women's Day.

On this occasion, this year's theme Invest in Women: Accelerate Progress was elaborated by the Worthy Principal and respected resource persons. The programme was moderated by Dr. Showkat H. Ganie, Co-Convener Debates and Seminars Committee. The Welcome Address was delivered by worthy Principal, Professor Syed Javaid Hussain in which all the resource persons from different departments, faculty members, non-teaching staff and students were accorded a warm welcome.

The worthy Principal also delivered the Keynote Address in which different dimensions of the theme were hinted to and, as such, the stage was set for the resource persons to highlight the theme threadbare. Ms. Masroofa Qadir, Assistant Professor Urdu, Govt Degree College for Women, Anantnag talked about the theme diligently. The respected speaker, at the very outset, eradicated the sense of polarity between men and women by emphasizing that the path of progress tread by the womenfolk would not have been possible without the active and sincere support of men. However, the learned speaker was of the opinion that women are being discriminated at many work places. The discriminations faced by women include unfair treatment and being given less demanding assignments. At the same time she also advised the women to perform their duties and other responsibilities assigned to them honestly so that nobody could raise finger against them.

GDC Uttersoo organized extension Lecture on different approaches to the study of Indian Nationalism: A Critical Analysis

Under the chairmanship of worthy Principal "Prof. (Dr.) Mushtaq Suhail, Department of History in collaboration with Debates and Seminar Committee organized an extension lecture on "Different Approaches to the study of Indian Nationalism" today as on 13th July, 2024. The event was moderated by Dr. Showkat Hussain Ganie, Head, Department of Botany. Professor Nazir Ahmad Wani, Head, Department of Chemistry cordially welcomed the gathering and also presented the keynote address. In his keynote address different dimensions of the theme was hinted to, and as such, the stage was set for the speaker.

The speaker of the Day Dr. Tariq Bashir, Head, Department of history initiated his talk by thoroughly explaining the subjective, objective and Idealistic concepts of the Nation. He highlighted colonial approach in which he mentioned that British did not consider the India as a Nation. In the Nationalist approach, he elucidated that Indian Stalwarts rejected colonial approach and declared India as a Nation in Making. The Nationalist approach is of the view that with the spread of Modern Education, India will become a full fledged Nation. Marxist approach negated the approach of both colonists and nationalists and highlighted that class differentiation, modes and means of production are important for the emergence of Nation, the speaker added. Lastly the speaker highlighted the Subaltern approach which completely undermined the thought of Nationalist, Colonist and Marxist approaches as all the three highlighted the contribution of elitist class only and undermined the contributions of common masses.

The Vote of thanks was presented by Dr. Showkat Hussain Ganie in which a heartfelt gratitude was paid to all the participants for making the event a great success.
