Report of intra college seminar on Dr B.R. Ambedkar under MERA YUVA BHARAT on 22nd April 2025.

The NSS unit of the college, in collaboration with the Department of Political Science, Debates and Seminar Committee, and IQAC, organized an intracollege seminar under MERA YUVA BHARAT on the theme, "B.R. Ambedkar-the architect of Indian Constitution" under the able guidance and dynamic leadership of our worthy principal, Prof Mushtaq Ahmad Sohail, to honor the life, legacy, and immense contributions of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar. The event served as an inspiring platform for students to explore and present various dimensions of Dr. Ambedkar's life, philosophy, and socio-political impact on modern India.

A total of nine students including Ms Shaiesta Yousuf, Fiza Bint-e-Nisar, Misba Ismail, Maliha Abbass, Shah Sabreena Hassan, Eima Yousuf, Urisa Ismail, Sabiya Jan, and Ifham Khurshid, participated in the seminar, each delivering thoughtful speeches on specific aspects of Dr. Ambedkar's work and ideology. The session began with an introductory address by our worthy principal, Prof Mushtaq Ahmad Sohail, who highlighted the relevance of Dr. Ambedkar's vision in today's society and encouraged students to embrace the values of equality, justice, and dignity that he stood for.

Each student speaker focused on a distinct theme, reflecting the multifaceted personality of Dr. Ambedkar. Some students spoke on his pioneering role in gender equality and women's empowerment, emphasizing how he advocated for equal rights, education, and social justice for women at a time when such issues were rarely addressed. Others highlighted his brilliance as a great economist, elaborating on his contributions to India's financial policies, water resource management, and ideas on inclusive economic development. Several speakers explored Dr. Ambedkar's depth as a philosopher and thinker, delving into his commitment to rationalism, Buddhism, and human rights. Students also examined his historic role as the chief architect of the Indian Constitution, underscoring the democratic principles, safeguards for marginalized communities, and fundamental rights enshrined in the Constitution because of his vision and leadership. The seminar was marked by passionate speeches, insightful observations, and a genuine sense of respect for Dr. Ambedkar's enduring legacy.

The jury members who were assigned duty of evaluating the speakers were Prof Nazir Ahmad Wani, HOD Chemistry, Dr Mohd Yousuf, HOD Political Science and Prof Ummar Mohamad, HOD Computer Application. The whole event was moderated by Prof Rouoof Habib, NSS Program Officer. Overall, the seminar was a meaningful and educational experience that deepened participants' appreciation for Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's monumental impact on India's social and constitutional framework. It also successfully fostered awareness and engagement among youth in alignment with the objectives of Mera Yuva Bharat. The event concluded with vote of thanks presented by Prof Basharat Hussain, HOD Economics.
