Purpose & Rationale

This sensitization programme was convened by the IQAC to promote institutional integrity and ethical responsibility among staff. It aimed to strengthen a culture of professionalism, inclusivity, and governance rooted in mutual respect and NAAC benchmarks.

Programme Flow & Highlights

- ① Welcome Address: Presented by Mr. Basharat Hussain, HoD Economics, who served as the moderator and set the tone with a cordial introduction to the session.
- ② Formal Address by Principal: Prof. Mushtaq Ahmad Sohail, Principal of the College, delivered the inaugural formal address after the welcome note. He emphasized the role of ethics in sustaining trust, excellence, and accountability within the higher education ecosystem.
- ③ Contextual Remarks by IQAC Coordinator: Mr. Ummar Muhammad elaborated on the programme's relevance from an IQAC perspective, underlining its role in strengthening Criterion 7 compliance and fostering staff-wide commitment to institutional values.
- ④ Keynote Address: Prof. N. A. Wani, HoD Chemistry and Staff Secretary, delivered the keynote, sharing personal reflections and professional experiences that deepened engagement with the topic and linked ethical awareness to real-life scenarios.
- ⑤ Expert Session: Dr. Mohammad Yousuf Bhat guided participants through critical dimensions of professional ethics and code of conduct, weaving together constitutional values, behavioral protocols, and role-based ethical duties.
- ⑥ Vote of Thanks: Offered by Prof. Rouoof Habib, HoD Environmental Science, who sincerely acknowledged the leadership of the Principal, insightful contributions of all speakers, and enthusiastic participation of the staff.

Programme Outcomes
