Key Observations

- Top Performing Subjects:
 - Zoology and Botany achieved 100% pass percentages, reflecting excellent teaching strategies and student effort.
 - Islamic Studies and Political Science GE also performed exceptionally well, with pass percentages exceeding 96%.
- Challenging Subjects:
 - Psychology recorded the lowest pass percentage at 44.44%, indicating the need for immediate academic support.
 - Mathematics (66.67%) and History GE (61.54%) also require focused interventions.
- Overall Performance:
 - A majority of subjects had pass percentages above 85%, reflecting strong academic performance across the college.
 - Education, Urdu, and Islamic Studies demonstrated consistently high results in both core and generic elective categories.

Challenges Identified

- Subjects with Low Pass Rates: Psychology, Mathematics, and History GE exhibited challenges that require remedial efforts.
- Student Attendance: Irregular attendance could be contributing to weaker performances in certain subjects.

Recommendations

- Remedial Classes: Organize subject-specific remedial classes for areas like Psychology, Mathematics, and History GE to improve comprehension and performance.
- Faculty Support: Strengthen faculty in departments facing resource constraints to ensure effective teaching for both core and elective courses.
- Workshops and Tutorials: Conduct workshops and tutorials on examination techniques, study strategies, and subject-specific skills to boost student confidence.
- Continuous Assessment: Implement regular internal assessments and progress monitoring to identify and address challenges proactively.
- Counselling Sessions: Provide motivational and counselling sessions to students to help manage academic stress and build confidence.

Conclusion

The BG 6th Semester Batch 2021 of GDC Uttersoo has demonstrated commendable academic performance overall, with many students excelling across various disciplines. However, the challenges identified in select subjects highlight the need for focused interventions. By implementing the recommendations outlined above, GDC Uttersoo can further elevate its academic standards and ensure sustained excellence in higher education.
