The Advisory committee is the apex body. Any Committee which may not have been enlisted above shall remain under the purview of the College Advisory Committee. All the conveners of the committees are enjoined upon to submit the performance report of their respective committees on monthly basis for reference and record.

Since the constitution of committees is the sole prerogative of the Principal, he reserves the right to make necessary amendments/changes in the committees as and when required depending upon the performance of the Conveners/members of the Committees
